A quick update on 210 Lottie. You may have seen in social media that there is a call for a protest on Friday 1/22 because the camp is going to be cleaned. That is misinformation.

The city is establishing a 25 foot buffer around city hall and campers have until Friday to move away from the building. PW is checking in with the campers on a daily basis and on Friday they will put up the same fencing that is around the library.

The city will also be posting that the time has come to start clearing the camp but again the clean up is not happening 1/22.

Stay tuned...

Flo
