

I understand that the purpose of the Stakeholder Advisory Board is to guide the development of the public health, safety and justice facility needs assessment. I feel that one of the needs that it is important to include is one of ultimately preventing and reducing the usage of such a facility. And so, while you address creating it, it seems there should also be a requirement attached to the project to be stimulating and developing the measures that will eventually eliminate much of the initially intended purpose of the facilities.